主たる研究テーマ Principal Research Subject	Creative Non-fiction for Life Experiene in Japan
The paper is about the cultural and real-life experience of the author in Japan, presented in non-fiction form or the personal essay. He realized how different and profound the social practices and cultural world of the Filipino and Japanese are, and he put it into a humorous and personally life-changing narrative. This is part of an on-going literary and cultural production and will comprise a book when finished. For this particular paper, it is already written and published in an academic journal in the Philippines.
