主たる研究テーマ Principal Research Subject	A Study on Urdu Prose in Dr. Suhail Bukhari's Critical Writings
Dr. Suhail Bukhari is a prominent Urdu scholar in Linguistics. Although Bukhari wrote many critical articles on Urdu prose works, few research works have been done on those articles. During the summer of 2015 I visited Oriental College, University of Punjab, Lahore (Pakistan) and collected more than fifty critical essays on Urdu short stories. I also exchanged views with scholars about contemporary Urdu literature there. I am planning to submit my article in the next year after further research and would like to edit and compile these essays for the publication. In February 2016 I visited Tokyo University of Foreign Studies where I met professors of Urdu Department. I also visited University library there. This time I could not find articles or books deeply related to my subject but could find some important magazines and articles on contemporary Urdu literature. I would like to utilize those materials for my future research.
