| My plan for this academic year is to continue the efforts of collecting and publishing materials on Swahili language and culture. In 2016, my initial plan was to prepare materials for publishing textbooks of Swahili language and culture as an initiative to produce sufficient reference materials for the courses I teach on Swahili language and culture. From 2017, I changed the focus from just collecting materials for publishing Textbooks to publishing the materials I have collected so far in the form of Academic Papers/Articles so that I can produce tangible outcomes that can benefit both learners and Instructors along the original plan. Thus, in 2018 March I managed to publish an article on Swahili Culture titled “Makuzi na Hatua za Maisha katika Utamaduni wa Kiswahili” in the journal: Frontier of Foreign Language Education, Graduate School of Language and Culture, Osaka University. This academic year, I also intend to produce an article on Swahili Culture from the collected materials. | | | | | |
