In addition to my academic communication skills courses, I intend to continue developing and teaching content-focussed elective courses in general linguistics and philosophy. I will also develop further content for the postgraduate course in modernist poetry that will be a continuation of my corresponding course in the spring semester. Finally, I hope to start a new long-term research project that will involve studying public discourse in South Africa on the topic of the country's colonial past through the sociolinguistic perspective of Critical Discourse Analysis.
