<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. I continued my research on the periphrasis <estar que + verb> which is used in Peru instead of the periphrasis <estar + gerund> to express the present continuous tense. Based on surveys conducted in Lima, I was able to confirm that this structure, which was thought to be used only in the northern part of the country, was widely used in the capital, situated in central Peru, as well as other parts of this country. 2. I also reviewed and published a previous research regarding the use of conocer and saber, two verbs meaning to know in English. 3. I worked in the new edition of a previous published textbook and wrote short reading texts about Japanese culture for students to be able to introduce their culture to foreigners. 4. Regarding class practices, I researched and published the results of students perception of my class tests.
